Eradicating discrimination as a school community

We believe that a greater level of success from pupils and staff can be achieved by realising the uniqueness of individuals. Creating a prejudice-free environment where individuals feel confident and at ease is a commitment of the school. This environment will be achieved by:

- Being respectful.
- Always treating all members of the school community fairly.
- Developing an understanding of diversity and the benefits it can have.
- Adopting an inclusive attitude and ensuring that the whole school community understands what inclusive behaviour looks like in the school and how this aligns with the school's values.
- Adopting an inclusive curriculum that is accessible to all.
- Encouraging compassion and open-mindedness.
- Challenging bias in order to move the conversation forward.

We are committed to having a balanced and fair curriculum. We believe that our pupils should be exposed to ideas and concepts that may challenge their understanding, to help ensure that pupils learn to become more accepting and inclusive of others. Challenging and controversial concepts will be delivered in a way that prevents discrimination and promotes inclusive attitudes.

Dealing with prejudice as a school community

We do not tolerate any form of prejudice-related incident. Whether direct or indirect, we treat discrimination against all members of our school with the utmost severity. ### Diversity, representation and Inclusion

As a school community it is imperative that every aspect of practice supports young children in demonstrating respect and showing tolerance towards people who may be different from themselves. This is a core value which is interwoven into all facets of school practice. It is the aim of school leaders that children are supported with personal, social and emotional development on a daily basis through a holistic plan of action for personal development. This is inclusive of all policies and procedures.

- An equality objective for the school is truly embracing and celebrating the diversity of the wider community and instilling behaviours of respect and tolerance in all aspects of education.
- An equality objective for the school is truly embracing and celebrating inclusiveness for every child and adult regardless of age, disability, gender assignment, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or sex.

Closing statement

Prejudice is not tolerated, and we are continuously working towards a more accepting and respectful environment for our school community.
